OFFICIAL MONTHLY NEWSLETTER OF THE TOWN OF FARMVILLE

The Heartbeat

Recognizing 25 Years of Service

Town employees who achieve 25 years of service are presented with a watch and recognition by Town Council to celebrate their achievement. Employees were presented watches at the January regular Council meeting.

Thank you for your service!

Robert “Bobby” Brown, Bobby was hired on April 11, 2000, as a Concrete Crew Worker (Laborer I). He was promoted to Laborer II in April 2002 and promoted again January 2022 to Equipment Operator, after advancing his skills on loaders, backhoes, dump trucks, and rollers.

Clarence “CR” Thomas, CR was hired on March 19, 2000, as a Water Treatment Plant Trainee. CR passed his Class IV (4) Water Operator License in August 2002, and was promoted to Water Treatment Plant Operator.

Timothy “Tim” Seamster, Tim was hired on October 1, 2000, as a Dispatcher. Tim was named CAD Administrator in August 2005, and became a Communications Operator II in 2015. Tim has received Commendations from the Town on several occasions.

Chuck Gallamore, Chuck was hired on April 10, 2000, as a Mechanic II. He graduated from the Nashville Auto-Diesel College with work experience as an equipment operator and mechanic, including diesel/heavy equipment/generators and welding. Chuck was promoted soon after to Foreman of Mechanics in October 2000.
