Farmville, VA – Armstead D. “Chuckie” Reid, Vice-Mayor of the Town of Farmville, was recently elected as president-elect of the Virginia Municipal League Executive Board. The membership of the Virginia Municipal League (VML) recently installed new officers and members to its board on October 3, 2022, at the League’s annual conference in Richmond.

The Virginia Municipal League is a statewide, nonprofit, nonpartisan association of city, town, and county governments established in 1905 to improve and assist local governments through legislative advocacy, research, education, and other services. VML’s Executive Board oversees the activities of the League. Representatives of the board must be elected or appointed officials of a city, town, or county who is a member of VML.
